2| ELEGANT EASTSIDE ESCAPE

To kick off your Eastside Escape, you and a guest will join John Patterson and the Patterson Cellars team for a day of winemaking; this may include a day at harvest (highly recommended), a day of blending trials, or a day of bottling. Whatever you choose, your day will be filled rubber boots, washdown hoses, lunch and beer at a local brewery, not to mention a case of whatever wine it is that you helped work on that day. To follow your day of winemaking, enjoy a chef counter dinner for two with the innovative Chef Don Curtiss at Volterra restaurant in downtown Kirkland. After indulging in the best of contemporary Italian cuisine, take in a show at the Kirkland Performance Center with complimentary tickets to any Kirkland Performance

Center event in their 2013-2014 Season. End your eventful day with one luxurious weekend night's stay at The Heathman Hotel, also in the heart of downtown Kirkland, and just blocks away from the moonlit shores of Lake Washington. Finally, continue your exploration of the Eastside throughout the year, with one Family Pass to the Bellevue Arts Museum and complimentary admission to four of Kirkland Arts Center's "Art & Wine Series." The Eastside has never been this fun!

DONATED BY: Volterra Restaurant, Heathman Hotel, Kirkland Arts Center, Bellevue Arts Museum, Patterson Cellars | RETAIL VALUE: $1,200

6 | CHOICE OF TWO CHEF COUNTER DINNERS

CHEF DINNER FOR 10 AT CAFÉ JUANITA OR CHEF TABLE DINNER FOR 8 AT MISTRAL KITCHEN

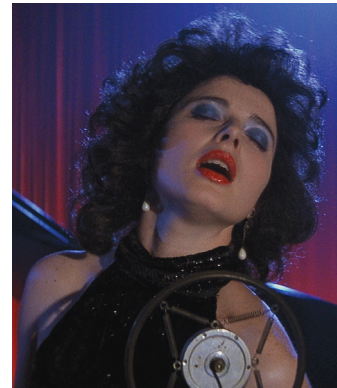

Cafe Juanita: You and 10 of your friends can enjoy the fresh, authentic and bold tastes of northern Italy and the great Northwest as you dine on a four course tasting menu at Kirkland's Cafe Juanita. The gourmet meal will be served in the restaurant's intimate Garden Room, each item specially prepared by chef and owner, Holly Smith. Mistral Kitchen: This dinner for eight includes a multi-course food and wine journey at Mistral Kitchen with chef William Belickis on hand. The foundation of any acclaimed restaurant is fresh and seasonal ingredients, and Mistral Kitchen is no exception. Chelsea Gem oysters from Eld Inlet taste like home, southern Californian burrata makes us weak in the knees, and La Quercia prosciutto from Iowa harbors deceptively

Italian flavor. Enjoy this unique dining experience among the best of friends in the beauty and intimacy of Mistral Kitchen. Juanita: Expires September 30, 2014. Dinner excludes alcohol, tax, and gratuity. Mistral Kitchen: Expires September 30, 2014. Dinner excludes alcohol, tax, and gratuity.
