SEATTLE international FILM FESTIVAL

WELCOME
TO THE 42ND

MAY 19
TO JUNE 12 2016

Attending the country's largest film festival is exciting—and easy! Whether you're new to SIFF or an experienced festivalgoer, the information below will help you enjoy all that the festival has to offer, from movies to forums to galas.

HOW TO SIFF IT UP

Movies take us to places we never thought possible. We're drawn into the story, wrapped up in the narrative, and are forever changed by the experience. We may laugh, cry, or scream in fear—or look away but want more. This is the undeniable force of cinema that infiltrates our psyche.

1 PICK THE FILMS YOU'D LIKE TO SEE

The mood groupings in this magazine will help you explore films depending on what mood you're in. Categorized by subject or theme, moods help you choose which films interest you so that you can create a personal cinematic itinerary. You can also go online for Programmers' Picks, or browse films by genre or country.

2 PURCHASE INDIVIDUAL TICKETS

Anyone can attend a film at the Festival! Tickets start at $13, but there are always discounts for weekday matinees, students, seniors, and SIFF members. However, if you plan to see a lot of films during the festival, visit SIFF.net to learn about the perks and discounts of buying passes and ticket packages.

3 BRING YOUR TICKETS

Why wait in line? You can now print your tickets at home or bring your tickets on your smart phone. Will Call is still available for pick up at SIFF Box Office locations and at any SIFF venue on days that festival films are being shown. Arrive at least 30 minutes prior to showtime for a smooth experience. You're on your way.

DAN IRELAND

SIFF is saddened at the loss of our Festival's co-founder, film director and producer Dan Ireland. His passion for bringing the fantastic, transformative, and beautiful spectrum of the cinematic experience to the world was unwavering. His continued support for the mission of our organization inspired us, and his smile brightened our Festival events annually. Dan will be greatly missed, but his legacy lives on as SIFF continues to shine a light in the dark as a leading presenter of all things film. A celebration remembering Dan will be held June 12, 1:30 PM at SIFF Cinema Egyptian.

The sweetest angel left us. Called his voicemail just to hear his voice once more. I'll miss you, baby. —Jessica Chastain

I will always remember his infectious smile, laugh, incredible wit and repartée. While there will never be another Dan Ireland in the world, I have some solace in the fact that he touched my life and forever changed me. —Carl Spence

SEATTLE international FILM FESTIVAL 2016

A great film is more than entertainment. It's a chance to see the world from a different perspective.

For over 40 years, SIFF has challenged, stimulated, and served our audiences by bringing them a vast variety of films from around the world. What's more, we offer classes, panels, and special events to help create and strengthen a community of cinema enthusiasts who are more informed, aware, and alive.

SEATTLE INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

SIFF is the largest film festival in the United States, with more than 150,000 people attending each year. The 25-day event is also the region's most accessible and critically acclaimed festival, renowned for presenting over 400 features, short films, and documentaries gathered from more than 80 countries.

SIFF CINEMA

Over 175,000 people attend SIFF Cinema each year to see the best new feature films, one-of-a-kind special events, and mini-festivals celebrating cinema from around the world, including the beloved Noir City Film Festival, which returns in July 2016.

Our two classic movie houses, SIFF Cinema Egyptian and SIFF Cinema Uptown, are the perfect venues for movie lovers who enjoy a wide array of studio and independent films, foreign-language cinema, documentaries, and restored classics. Recent favorites include Jeff Nichols' sci-fi adventure Midnight Special, the Oscar®-nominated Embrace of the Serpent, Benedict Cumberbatch's Hamlet, the new 4K restoration of Akira Kurosawa's Ran, and a career-spanning retrospective of the work of Wim Wenders. The SIFF Film Center at Seattle Center is an intimate, state-of-the-art single-screen cinema showcasing new discoveries from around the world and community programs, and is also the home of SIFF's education programs.

SIFF Cinema also features unique programs that take you beyond the screen with filmmaker and panel discussions, "Stage to Screen" theater events, live music with silent films, monthly screenings of The Rocky Horror Picture Show, and interactive events like The Clueless Make-Over Party and Willy Wonka & the Chocolate Factory in Smell-O-Vision. That's right! Smell-O-Vision!

SIFF EDUCATION

Our education programs are designed to train and strengthen the community of Seattle film lovers and filmmakers. FutureWave provides free access to films and filmmakers, hands-on training, and exceptional cinematic experiences for more than 13,000 students and educators a year. The Catalyst program offers training, forums, and workshops for aspiring filmmakers. Film4All offers informative and enlightening behind-the-scenes discussions and classes for cinema lovers of any age.

A Tribute to Viggo Mortensen

SATURDAY, JUNE 11, 1:30 PM
SIFF Cinema Egyptian

An actor, painter, poet, photographer, and jazz musician, Viggo Mortensen's combination of rugged exterior and reflective interior have infused his wide range of film roles with equal parts gravitas and compassion—from criminals to cowboys, lovers to lieutenants, post-apocalyptic survivors to sagacious psychoanalysts, and the rightful king of Gondor.

SIFF honors him this year with four film programs. On Saturday, June 11 at 1:30 PM Mortensen will be presented with the Seattle International Film Festival Award for Outstanding Achievement in Acting. After an onstage interview with film clips from his career, there will be a screening of his newest film, Captain Fantastic, directed by Matt Ross. Also, Special Presentation screenings of Eastern Promises, The Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King, and A Walk on the Moon will occur on, respectively, June 10, 11, and 12.

TRIBUTES

An Afternoon with Molly Shannon

SUNDAY, MAY 22, 4:30 PM
SIFF Cinema Egyptian

Molly Shannon's penchant for theatrical comedy inspired some of "Saturday Night Live"'s most famous characters from 1995-2001, including Mary Catherine Gallagher and Sally O'Malley. Shannon went on to appear in several films such as Superstar, Wet Hot American Summer, Marie Antoinette, last year's SIFF favorite Me, Earl, and the Dying Girl, and the TV series "Glee" and "Enlightened." Her ability to shift seamlessly from comic characters to more nuanced dramatic roles is something not many can match. On May 21, SIFF will welcome her to the stage for an interview featuring film clips from her career, followed by a screening of one of Shannon's latest films, Other People, directed by Chris Kelly. There will also be an opportunity for audience questions following the screening.

WHAT SORT OF FILM DO I FEEL LIKE SEEING TONIGHT?

QUICK GUIDE TO MOODS

With our handy moods groupings, we've made it easy to find the type of cinematic experience you're in the mood for. Instead of using traditional categories, we've aimed to connect films with you, the audience, by organizing them into eight areas that match your mood.

Romance and love in all its forms, pleasures, and idiosyncrasies.

PAGES 16-18

Films that make you chuckle and tickle your funny bone.

PAGES 19-21

The exploration of artistic endeavors from all disciplines: music, literature, cooking, film, art, dance, and performance.

PAGES 23-25

Revealing films and documentaries revolving around history, politics, and contemporary events from around the world.

PAGES 31-33

Suspense, thrills, and action—films with a faster pace that might also surprise you when you least expect it!

PAGES 34-36

Prepare to be taken to another place—from exotic, far-off lands to vibrant experiences outside of everyday life.

PAGES 38-40

The most outrageous, mind-blowing, and unexpected tales in genre filmmaking that will stimulate your brain, keep you up at night, or simply leave you happily exclaiming "WTF?!"

PAGES 41-42

Mesmerizing dramas and documentaries that explore provocative questions, realities, and topics.

PAGES 43-45

ROMANCE AND LOVE IN ALL ITS FORMS, PLEASURES, AND IDIOSYNCRASIES.

The theme of love has consistently made for some of the most classic and emotionally effective films of all time. This year SIFF is bursting with love not only for our audience, but for all of these inspiring stories of romance, passion, friendship, and loss. His presidency may be coming to a close, but the charm and magnetism of Barack Obama live on in a romantic retelling of his and Michelle's first date in Chicago in the summer of 1989 [Southside with You]. Outsider friendship and the consequence of forbidden love plague three Italian teenagers as they band together against the world [One Kiss], and one couple is faced with the logistics of "making it work" when they realize a weekend getaway is actually a call from friends to save their marriage [The Intervention]. The frenzy and confusion of adolescence is authentically depicted in a story of two strangers embarking on a violent Bonnie & Clyde-esque road trip [Eternal Summer], as are the struggles of a high-school girl who must reject her male friend's advances when she realizes she's in love with the most popular girl in school [First Girl I Loved]. Laugh, cry, and feel the butterflies in your stomach as these SIFF films take you out and woo you.

TIFF UP
MAY 18 TO JUNE 18, 2018

AFRICAN PICTURES

African Pictures showcases the best filmmaking happening in and about Africa today. This program, made possible through the generous support of the Academy of Motion Pictures Arts and Sciences, will bring shorts and features, documentaries and fiction films to American audiences who might never have the chance to see them otherwise. This is a not-to-be-missed opportunity to experience innovative and inspiring filmmaking from across the continent.

Best of all, we're bringing many of these filmmakers to the festival with their work. So come and meet them, see their films, and hear them talk about this new international hotspot of exciting filmmaking activity.

THE SECRET HISTORY OF THE SECRET FESTIVAL

The Secret Festival is exactly what it says—all screenings are secret. What we can tell you is that you need to purchase a special Secret Festival pass to attend the screenings that occur on the four Sundays of the festival at 11 a.m. sharp. You are required to sign a legally binding non-disclosure document, also known as “the oath of silence.” We do not disclose the titles of the films we show before the film screening or after. In fact, we will not confirm, reveal, or discuss the showing of any films in the Secret Festival, and we require the same standard from Secret Festival members. If you ask, we will deny! deny! deny! Why? Because we show films that we are not supposed to show, films that have legal issues and cannot be publicly screened, films that have been promised to premiere at festivals later in the year, films that people may have sent us by mistake! Our Secret Festival attendees also take it very seriously and will do whatever it takes to continue the tradition. You never know what you might see at the Secret Festival. It is well worth the risk and possible reward.

CULINARY CINEMA

Popcorn is no longer king as the phenomenon of food culture has exploded into cinema. We've selected nine extraordinary films that explore different aspects of taste and the senses for the cinematically inclined.

CHINA STARS

SIFF and WASA North American Group, with the support of Hainan Airlines, are pleased to present the first China Stars Showcase series in Seattle during the 42nd annual Seattle International Film Festival.

With the purpose of fostering cross-cultural exchange and artistic vision, SIFF has collaborated with WASA North America Group to select five wonderful feature films from mainland China to screen as part of the 2016 showcase series. These films will screen before audiences in Seattle, Renton, Shoreline, and on the Eastside at Bellevue's Lincoln Square.

FACE THE MUSIC

Four out of five SIFF programmers agree that regular exposure to music and film are essential to your overall well-being. With that in mind, this year's Face the Music program has been specifically designed to provide a holistic regimen for your audio-visual health. Taken together, these remedies are guaranteed to expand your visual and sonic parameters, as well as set you on the righteous path to living a more audio-visually conscious lifestyle, with optimal aural performance.

REVEALING FILMS AND DOCUMENTARIES REVOLVING AROUND HISTORY, POLITICS, AND CONTEMPORARY EVENTS FROM AROUND THE WORLD.

This year let SIFF open you up to new experiences and give you a behind-the-scenes look at lifestyles and ideas previously unfamiliar. Meet a Seattle man who spent years grappling with his identity before bravely taking on gender reassignment [Finding Kim]. Experience one baby elephant's fight for survival on the African savannah [Naledi: A Baby Elephant's Tale], and then spend spring, summer, fall, and winter up close and personal with a bevy of nature's most glorious creatures [Seasons]. Dive into the video diaries of 20-something Melisa and her friends as they dissect self-confidence, friendship, and dating in the millennial age [The Pretty Ones] before meeting the elderly players ruthlessly competing in a senior tennis competition [Gold Balls]. Open your eyes and ears this year at SIFF to a collection of films ready to challenge your ideas and expand your horizons.

SUSPENSE, THRILLS, AND ACTION—FILMS WITH A FASTER PACE THAT MIGHT ALSO SURPRISE YOU
WHEN YOU LEAST EXPECT IT

Laughter may be the best medicine, but thrillers get the heart pumping. The hair-raising films in Thrill Me will have you on the edge of your seat: placing you along the lawless U.S./ Mexico border in Transpecos, the treacherous minefields of Afghanistan in Kilo Two Bravo, and the desert killing fields of Carnage Park. You'll learn more about the man who tried to kill Hitler [13 Minutes], serial killer Richard Ramirez [The Night Stalker], a nightmarish internet bogeyman [Beware the Slenderman], and an invisible 11-year-old [Phantom Boy]. Machete-wielding gang members battle for dominance, a ghost crashes a wedding, a 15-year-old Russian aristocrat goes on an adventure to find her grandfather in the Arctic wilderness, and in what is described as "Game of Thrones" on skis, two members of a 11th-century warrior clan raise swords and arrows to protect the infant heir to the throne. These films will always keep you guessing and never let you catch your breath. Don't look away or you might miss the twist!

13 Minutes North American Premiere
From the director of Downfall comes a breathtaking real-life thriller about resistance fighter Georg Elser, whose 1939 Hitler assassination attempt may have changed history—if not for a discrepancy of a few minutes. The films of SIFF are ready to fill both your passport and your mind with stories from around the world. Bundle up and let scientist Claude Lorius teach you about Antarctic ice and the very real threat of global warming and climate change [Ice and the Sky] before embarking on a tense road trip through the country roads of Thailand [The Island Funeral]. Challenge traditions in rural Bangladesh as two children struggle to understand their place in the world [Kingdom of Clay Subjects], and witness what happens when modern beliefs and motherly conservatism clash in a quiet Turkish village [Motherland]. War-torn Nepal is the setting for an unlikely friendship between two children of different backgrounds as they set out to find a missing hen amid a fragile cease-fire [The Black Hen], then dip into a program of short films from Spain, covering friends, enemies, lovers and the Virgin Mary [Corto y Maravilloso]. By the end of this festival, you'll be a regular jet-setter.

One thing SIFF delights in is showcasing films that will really freak you out—whether horror, sci-fi, unbelievable documentaries, or over-the-top thrillers. Catch up with Dawn Wiener in Todd Solondz's Wiener-Dog, and experience so-bad-they're-good movies in a whole new way with a combo of live comedy, bingo, and a screening of an outrageous '80s Indonesian action film [B-Movie Bingo presents: Rambo the Intruder]. Embark on a roller-coaster of laughs and screams when a family hires a rookie ghost hunter to get rid of the entities haunting their house [Another Evil], and see what happens when a murderous cannibal covered in grease and oil terrorizes a small city in a film that would make John Waters cringe [The Greasy Strangler]. Three chefs travel the world and show that there's no shortage of the weirdness real life dishes out, as they try to find new ways of making insects into a delectable cuisine [Bugs], and an ad recruiting young males for a tickling competition sparks litigation, harassment, and a series of events too bizarre to make up [Tickled]. Experience the wild, the titillating, the fantastic, and more with SIFF's section of truly WTF films.

The 1,000 Eyes of Dr. Maddin US Premiere

MESMERIZING DRAMAS AND DOCUMENTARIES THAT EXPLORE PROVOCATIVE QUESTIONS, REALITIES, AND TOPICS.

Do you dare to take on these films? Provocative, incendiary, revelatory, these are the movies that will rock you to your core and change your world. In the documentary The Lovers and the Despot, a famous director and his actress wife are kidnapped and forced to work as the personal filmmakers of Kim Jong-il. In Tower, rotoscoped actors recreate every tense, frightening moment of the 1966 UT Austin shooting. Get dropped into the middle of fraternity hazing and male bonding in Goat, interview a former child soldier in Eye of the Storm, make trouble with the lakeside teens of Sleeping Giant, and experience four stories of Kazakh adolescence in The Wounded Angel. Enter the storefront churches of Memphis in Free in Deed, the Tulsa homeless camps of Mekko, and the ancient Jerusalem graveyard of Mountain. And in The Revolution Won't Be Televised, join the youth-led resistance against the standing president of Senegal. Ready to have your world challenged? Pick one of these films. Go on. We dare you.

SIFF EDUCATION

Camps & Youth Programs FUTUREWAVE

School Break Camps

SIFF Education hosts filmmaking camps for young filmmakers of all experience levels during select school breaks. Each multi-day camp is taught by a master film educator and multiple supporting mentors.

SIFF Youth Juries

SIFF Education annually selects seven children (ages 8-12) for our Films4Families Jury and seven teenagers (ages 13-18) for our FutureWave Jury.

Crash Kids & Crash Student

Crash Kids (ages 9-12) affords beginning to advanced youth the opportunity to work with a professional media educator for a day-long experience in filmmaking. In Crash Student (ages 13+), young filmmakers are assigned an experienced peer filmmaker from NFFTY and SIFF to produce a short film using randomly chosen creative elements.

Cinema Education for Film Lovers

FILM4ALL

Cinema Dissection

Cinema Dissection is a monthly event that affords film lovers an exciting opportunity to dig deeper into the films that they love. Over six hours, an expert facilitator will share the stage with audience observations as they work scene-by-scene through a great film.

Appreciation Classes

At SIFF, film experts (often professors and critics) expand film experiences with a deeper appreciation on a wide variety of film-related topics. These classes may be single or multi-day opportunities to explore the films of specific filmmakers, genres, countries/continents, or historical periods.

Crash Filmmaking Challenge

SIFF Crash Cinema is a bi-monthly non-competitive filmmaking challenge, taking participants (beginning to experienced) from concept to screening in eight hours. It is about having fun, making a movie, and seeing it on the big screen. Come with a team or find a team at SIFF.

Professional Development for Filmmakers

CATALYST

Master Classes

Designed for industry insiders and other professionals, SIFF hosts visiting and local filmmakers for master classes that illuminate and inspire.

First Draft

First Draft is a free series that offers audiences a glimpse into the first stage of the creative development process via a live table read performed by professional Seattle actors.

2nd Weekend [May 27 - 30]
ShortsFest Weekend Panels

State of the Short With Kathleen McInnis

From the (short film) front: five key reasons why "finding your audience" should mean more to you than just filling seats in the theater.

Short Film Happy Hour and Networking Panel

Make the most of SIFF 2016 and any other festivals through learning techniques from seasoned filmmakers and industry professionals on how to connect with others at the Festival.

Developing Audience on Social Media

Meeting your audience where they are engaging with social media is important.

The Art of Writing a Short Screenwriting experts share their knowledge about taking the narrative foundation of your future short to the next level or amplifying your short into a feature.

4th Weekend [June 11]
Catalyst Film Panels

Catalyst Screenplay Competition A live read of the winning script with local and visiting actors.

Can Critics Save the Movies? It can be easy to assume that everyone's a critic. Gone are the days in which two thumbs could determine the fate of any single movie. At the same time, there is a greater need than ever for a signal in the noise that defines today's media landscape.

Who Should Release My Movie? All filmmakers dream of reaching an audience. Sometimes that audience is in the theater, but these days they're just as likely to stay home. In an age defined by on-demand viewing habits and the golden age of television, what's the best way for movies to find their way into the world?

Catalyst Filmmaker Panel All six Catalyst filmmakers divulge the experiences that got their films to the big screen

JOIN THE FUTURE, ALREADY IN PROGRESS.

Virtual Reality has moved beyond gaming and into the domain of filmmakers, artists and activists. But what is it exactly? And how is it different from Augmented Reality and 360° films? Take all three technologies for a spin at SIFFX, Seattle's first festival devoted to exploring the new frontiers of immersive storytelling.

Experience the latest in headset technology, and see examples of VR's potential as a new medium for storytelling across art forms.

Hear "godmother of virtual reality" Nonny de la Peña speak about the future of immersive journalism, and see a retrospective of her work.

View new films in 360° projection at the Pacific Science Center Laser Dome, including award-winning docs by RYOT and The New York Times.

Explore the ethics of VR, whether it means the end of linear storytelling, and whether the technology has the power to make humans more human.
