APRIL 2026 HIGHLIGHTS

The Christophers

OPENS APR 16 • UPTOWN

The great Ian McKellen and Michaela Coel ("I May Destroy You") make a brilliant pairing in Oscar winner Steven Soderbergh's incisively witty chamber comedy about art, commerce, and avarice. Julian Sklar (Ian McKellen) was once a star of London's 1960's and '70s pop art explosion, but he hasn't painted in decades and has been broke for years. His two estranged children, desperate for an inheritance, hire Lori, an art restorer and former forger (Michaela Coel), to pose as a prospective assistant in order to access 8 unfinished canvases Julian has buried deep in storage. Her plan is to complete them, then return them to storage, where they are to be "discovered" upon Julian's death.

Two of Britain's greatest painters, J.M.W. Turner and John Constable were also fierce rivals, both using landscape painting to reflect their changing world — Constable with old school realism, Turner with abstraction and dreamlike impressions.

MARTIN SCORSESE: MAESTRO OF CINEMA
Casino (1995)
APR 8 - UPTOWN

Juicy, over the top, deliciously gaudy 1970s excess, as Robert De Niro tries to keep his casino free of Mob interference, while his enforcer (Joe Pesci), his wife (Sharon Stone), and her ex (James Woods) pursue their often conflicting agendas. 30th anniversary screening.

Exit 8
OPENS APR 9 - UPTOWN

Genki Kawamura's Dante-inspired spin on Kotake Create's cult game traps Arashi star Kazunari Ninomiya in a looping, sterile subway where one mistake resets everything. A purgatorial thriller born from on-set collaboration, Exit 8 fuses gameplay logic with razor-sharp, emotionally charged cinema.
