

SIFF Press FAQ

Q: How can I be added to your news release distribution list?

A: Sign up for our news releases by emailing festivalpress@siff.net

Q: Who do I contact if I need an interview or want to do a story about SIFF or the Seattle International Film Festival?

A: Contact festivalpress@siff.net. Please provide who you'd like to interview, deadline and press outlet. As much advance notice ahead of deadline is appreciated.

Q: I am a journalist who wants to attend and cover the Seattle International Film Festival. What do I do?

A: More information is available on our Accreditation page. Typically accreditation opens late March and closes mid-April.

Q: As a journalist, may I attend a public screening or Festival party?

A: Based on availability, yes. Please submit your request through our Complimentary Tickets Page .

Q: I am a journalist who wants to cover a SIFF Cinema film or program. What should I do?

A: Please contact press@siff.net with your specific request, deadline and outlet.

Q: I am a journalist who wants to cover SIFF Educational programs. What do I do?

A: We welcome coverage of our Educational programs. Please email us at press@siff.net.

Q: How do I obtain high-resolution images from the Seattle International Film Festival, SIFF Cinema, or Educational programs?

A: High-resolution film stills, press notes, director headshots, bios, and other information can be downloaded at press.siff.net.
